Lake View-Auburn High School building opens at 8:00 a.m. with the school beginning at 8:30. Teachers are available for individual help from 8:00 to 8:30 and from 3:30 to 4:00.

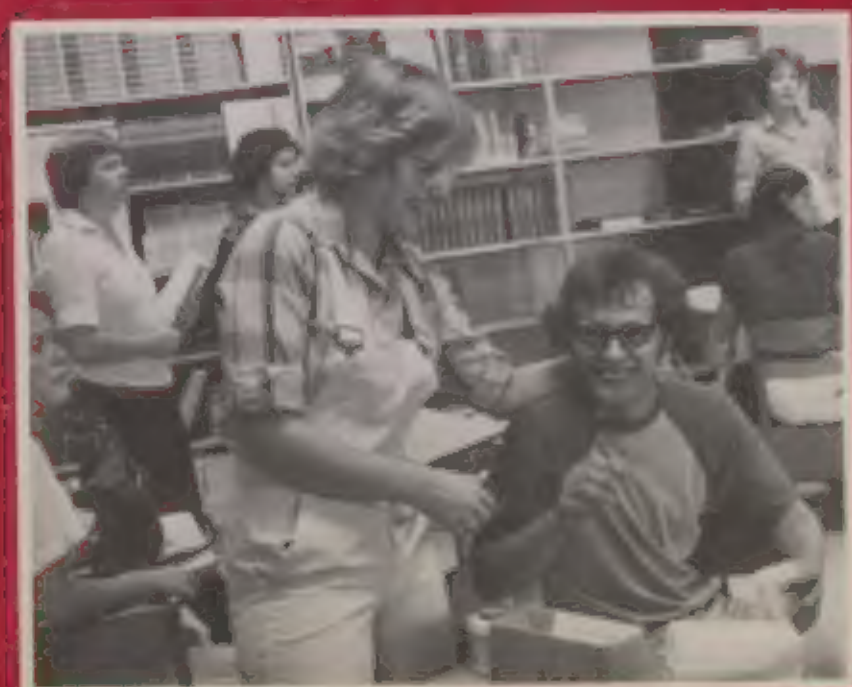

The High School and Junior High operate on an eight period day with three minutes for passing.

OUR YEAR Begins

The first day of school--what mixed emotions those words bring. We are glad to see our friends, but sad to see the summer freedom end. The first day of school also means meeting in the old gym to be greeted by Mr. Kaiser, receiving your copy of the student handbook, filling out schedule cards, getting insurance forms, and standing in line to pay book rent and towel fees.

LVA students returned to find an addition to Mrs. Kaiser's room--an Apple II computer was purchased and "Space Invaders" soon became an obsession.

During the first few weeks of school many highs and lows were experienced. The Juniors anxiously awaited the arrival of their class rings, and when they arrived they were worn with pride. Noon homeroom became a thing of the past as a split lunch period was established. We experienced the loss of a friend and classmate as Jeff Werkmeister was killed in an automobile accident.

The Thespians sponsored a Drama Kick-off to inform students of the many drama activities available.

Academics Get Us Involved

The Senior Class was awarded a half-day off from school in reward for their high scores on the ITED tests. The class ranked in the 94th percentile nationally and the 89th percentile state-wide.

Parent-teacher conferences were again held during the evening giving the students a free day. The faculty enjoyed a pot-luck supper after conference hours.

The national and state elections filled our classrooms and newspapers during the first part of the year. Candidates debated on television and many local candidates visited Mr. Peterson's classes. On November 4 the well-informed student body held a mock election and the results followed the same pattern set by the state and nation. The students and the nation elected Ronald Reagan our next president by a landslide margin. On the state level the ERA issue was defeated by the students and the voters.

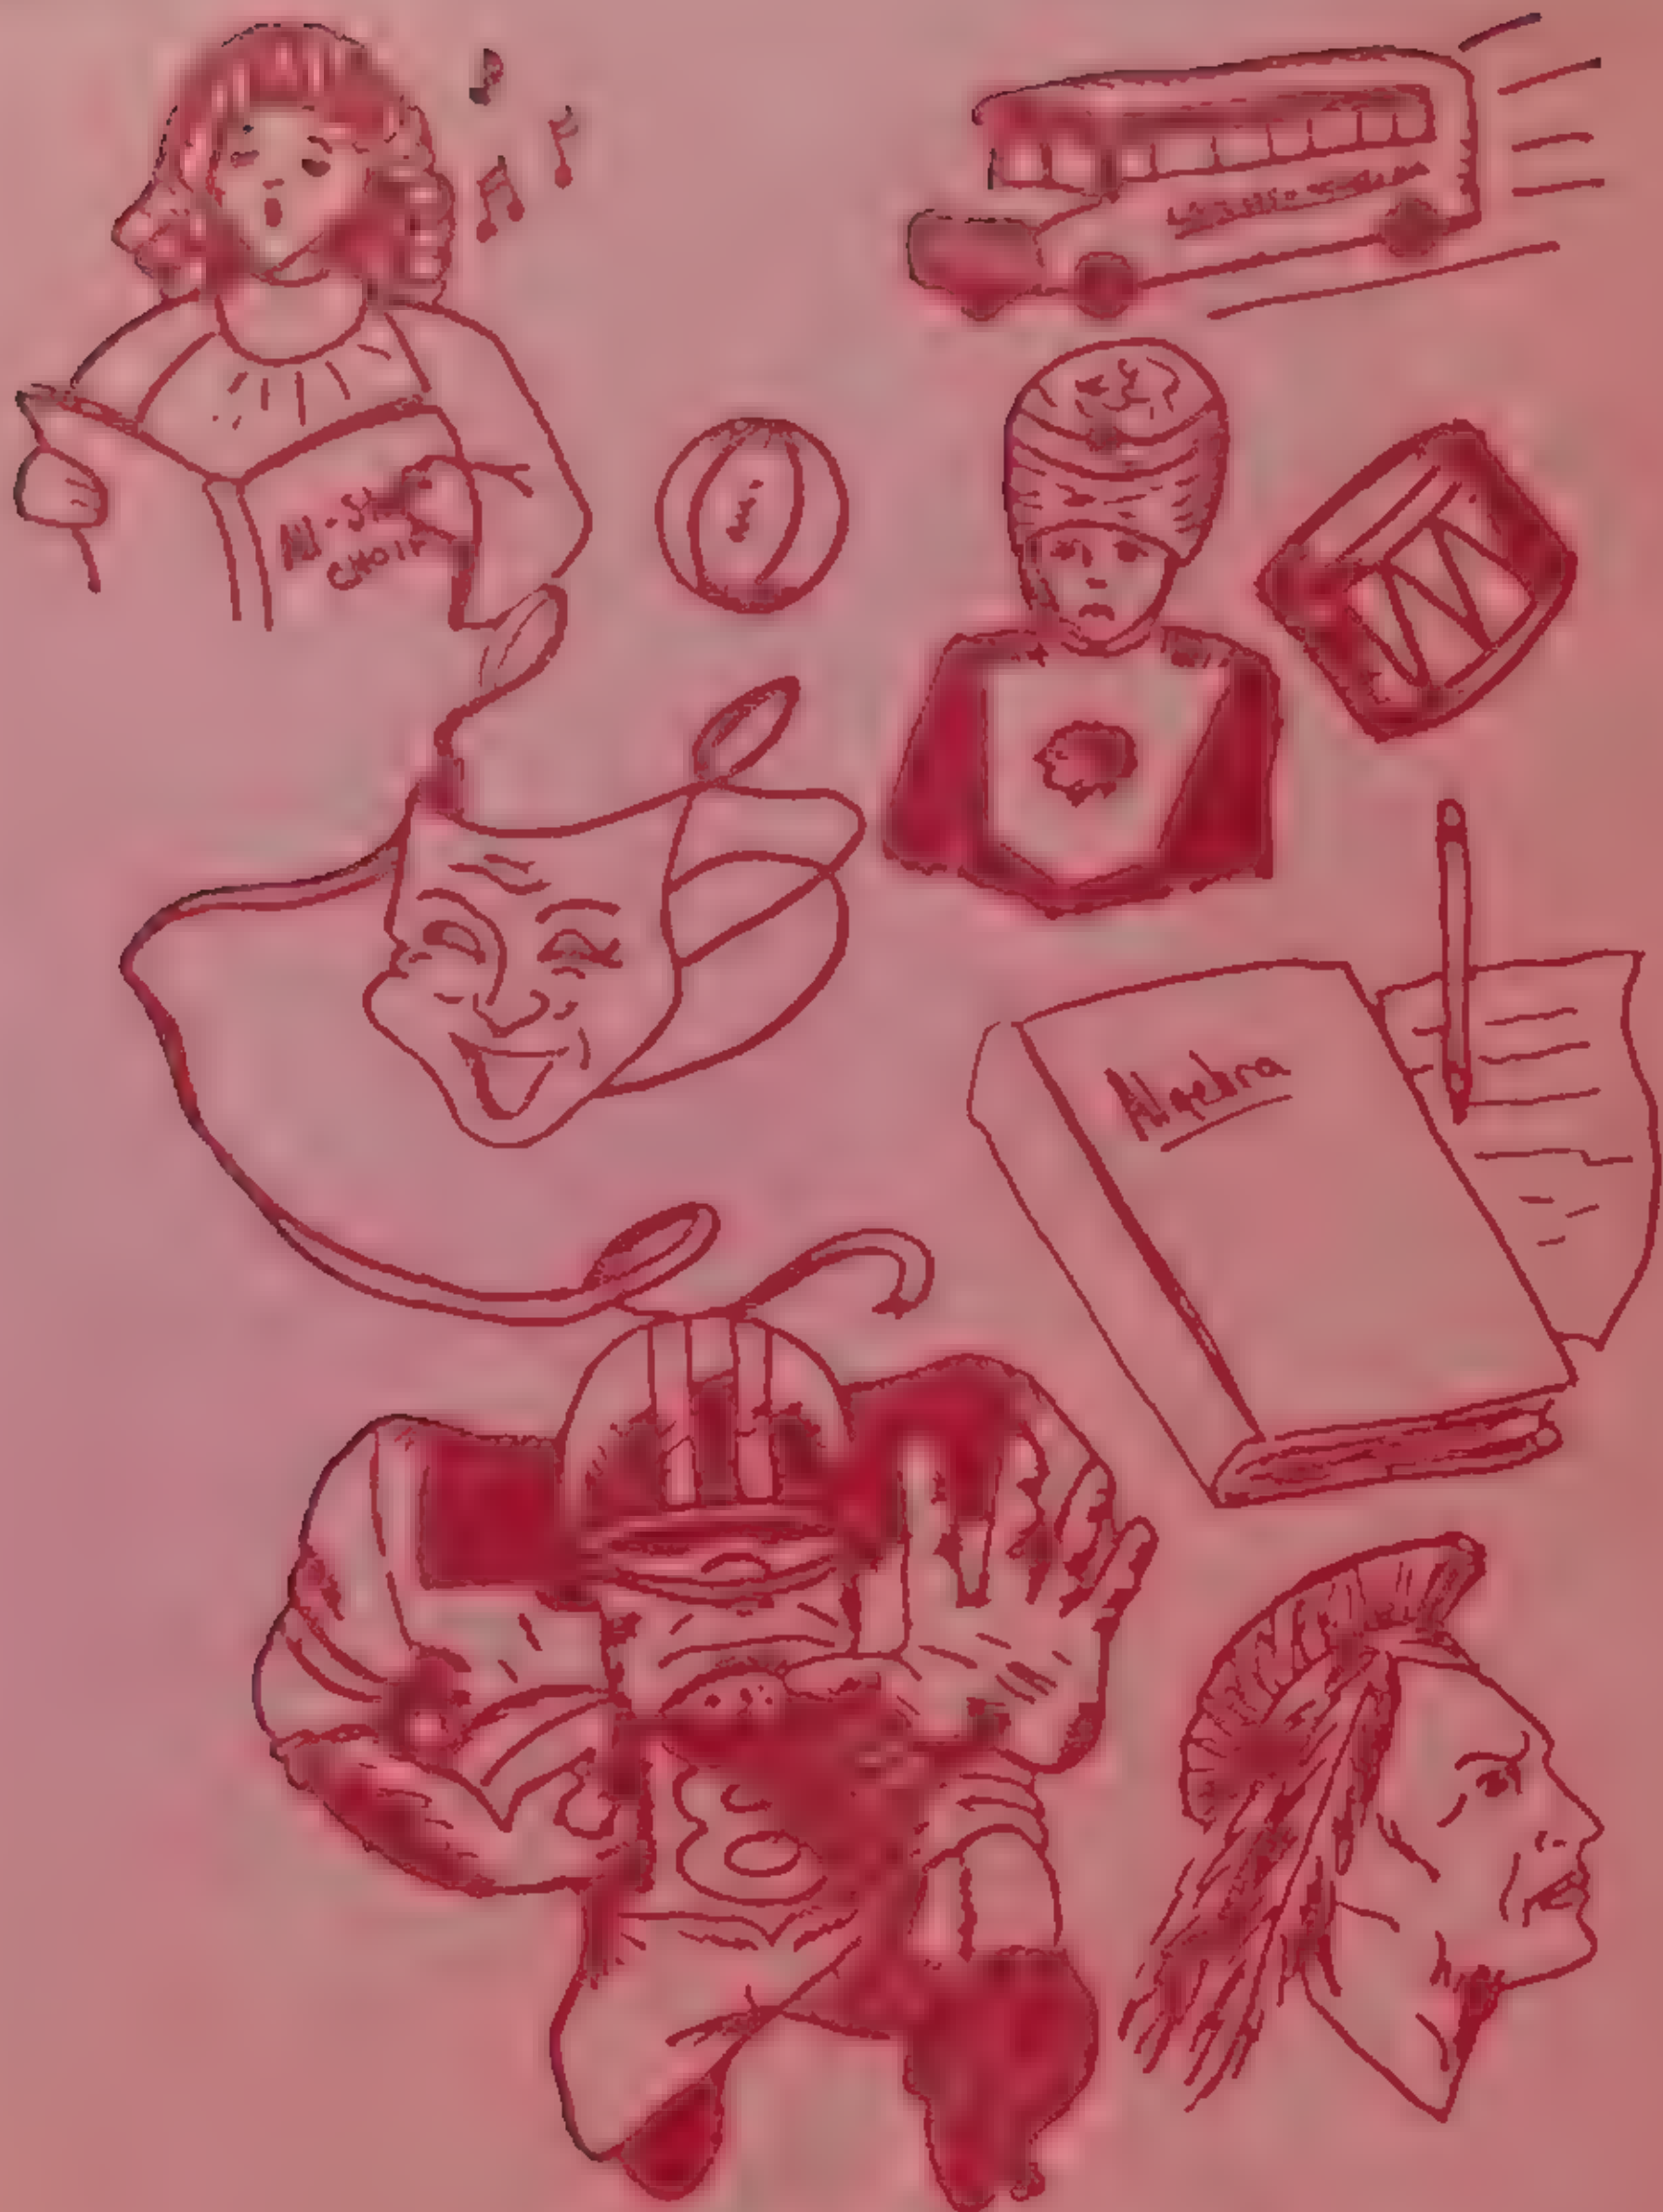

Many activities filled the classrooms. Speeches were presented to demonstrate, persuade, and convince. The Child Development class constructed and inhabited a Halloween haunted house for the elementary. Dru's chemistry students again produced a "questionable aroma" and accounting students delved into practice sets.

Activities in Full Swing

As the year progressed, activities became a big part of the lives of LVA's students. Football was in full swing as the juniors took over the concession stand to earn money for financing prom expenses. Homecoming was a festive week. The cheerleaders performed a pom pom routine at Skit Night that was well received. John Colshan was the lucky winner of the game-ball raffle. The entire instrumental music department practiced as a mass group for the last home football game halftime show. The 5th and 6th grade baton twirlers added a sparkle to the show. Culmination of months of practice was the All-State concert November 15. LVA was proud to send eight vocalists and two instrumentalists to the event.

This is only the beginning. Continue along as we unfold the rest of OUR YEAR.

Blackhawks Taste Victory at Last!

VICTORY!! Yes, at last the deserving Blackhawks tasted the joys of victory as a 26-game losing streak was broken against Battle Creek with a 32-7 win. Later in the season a second win was celebrated by defeating Lytton. These wins mark a turn-around for Coach Stevens and his young squad made possible by hours of hard work and determination. Scott Meyer was chosen the squad's MVP at the end of the season.

The schedule did the Blackhawks no favors. Three times during the season our opponent was state-ranked. The team was proud to score the only points allowed by Crestland to that point in the season.

The JV Squad performed well and was undefeated. Look for more victories in the future for the Football Blackhawks.

Cheerleading is poster painting, pep rallies, track concession stand, and hours of hard work. Each squad of football cheerleaders promoted school spirit with enthusiasm. The varsity squad attended a cheerleading clinic at Storm Lake. The JV group conducted one of the Friday pep rallies, and the Junior High cheerleaders held pep rallies before their home games.

New Corp-Style Look for Band

Evidence of several years of successful Band Carnivals was apparent as the Marching Blackhawks acquired new corp-style uniforms. The new red and black uniforms were worn for the first time in the Homecoming Parade. The band made its annual appearance at Carroll Band Day as well as marching in Lake View's Centennial Parade. Preparation for 5 football half-time shows kept the band busy during the first quarter.

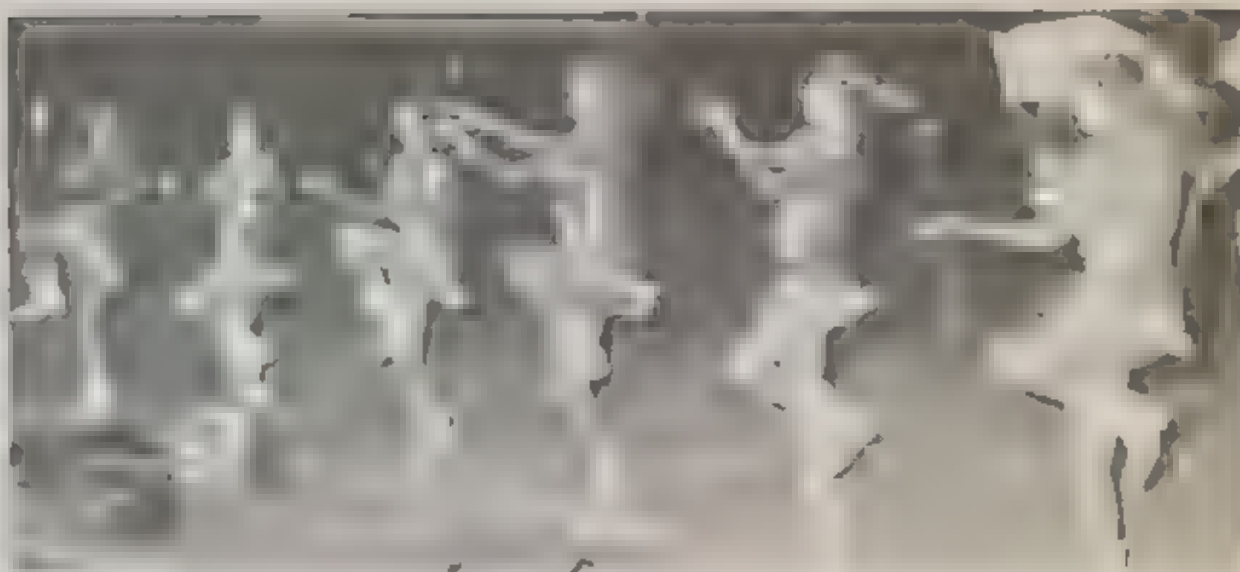

LVA's Band Queen Brenda Sigmon received 2nd Runner-up honors at Carroll Band Day.

The Marching Blackhaws were under the leadership of Drum Majorette Jeanne Wetzstein.

THE LVA JUNIOR HIGH MARCHING BLACKHAWKS

The twirlers and flag corp participated in the State Contest in October. Each group received a II rating.

Chicago Trip Climaxes Band's Busy Year

After the completion of the marching season, the band turned its attention to preparation for its many other activities. The annual Parade of Bands Concert had to be postponed due to snow, but super performances were enjoyed on the rescheduled date. Two Jazz Bands participated in the Tri-State Jazz Festival at Morningside College, where Linda Hammerstrom received an outstanding soloist award. Six members were selected to play in Northwest Iowa's Honor Band and two were honored with All-State selections. The majority of the winter found LVA band members providing pep band music for the many home basketball games and pep meetings.

As preparations for small group contest began, trios, quartets, and ensembles of every size were found practicing in every available space each morning. The hard work paid off as LVA band members brought home 26 1 ratings. Due to practice time being devoted to the musical, the band did not attend large group contest this year.

The highlight of the year came in May when the band members traveled to Chicago to perform in the Music Maestro, Please Festival May 29-June 1. The trip was funded by magazine sales, bake sales, a slave auction, and a dance.

Yearbook Staff Presents Colorful Account of "Our Year"

Staff members Marsha Tegels and Jackie Snyder put down a headline with Formatt lettering.

Co-Editors of the 1981 yearbook are Linda Hammerstrom, Deb Meyer, Lisa Schoneboom.

Work on the 1981 yearbook, OUR YEAR, began last July when Lisa, Linda, and Mrs. Bradshaw spent three days at Buena Vista for a yearbook camp. There they worked on the various options available for yearbooks from our new publisher. Special effects such as shades of black, spot-color, and reverse print were introduced.

Thanks to the LVA Student Council the staff was able to include a 4-page color tip-in and a full-color end sheet.

Staff members worked hard to put together OUR YEAR; we hope you like it.

Student Council Buys Color for Yearbook; Sponsors Snowball

One of the first items to be passed by the new Student Council was agreeing to purchase color for the yearbook from pop machine proceeds.

The Council sponsored two activities during the year-- Homecoming and the Snowball Dance. Music for the Snowball dance was provided by Gangster and enjoyed by all.

STUDENT COUNCIL: First Row: B. Kruthoff, S. Fredrichs, S. Gerdes. Second Row: C. Cleveland, J. Kruse, S. Vote, D. Langbein, T. Morenz. Third Row: L. Hammerstrom, B. Sigmon, C. Kolbe, J. Kruse, P. Busch, L. Maunu.

Student Council President Caran Kolbe was elected in a run-off election, defeating Jerry Kruse. Caran's leadership was evident during Homecoming week and at the Council's meetings.

Julie Frank is Homecoming Queen

Homecoming 1980 began with first-round voting for Queen. The six semi-finalists were announced by Jerry Kruse: Doris Buse, Julie Frank, Caran Kolbe, Rajean Nelson, Lisa Schoneboom & Jody Stock. Second-round voting produced a tie--thus four finalists vied for the honor of reigning as the 1980 Homecoming Queen. The finalists were Julie Frank, Caran Kolbe, Rajean Nelson, and Jody Stock. These finalists were escorted by LeRoy Maunu, Jeff McCorkle, Jerry Kruse, and Scott Meyer. As Skit Night progressed, tension grew. At last Perry Busch read the name of Julie Frank as our new queen. She was crowned and kissed by Jeff Ogren.

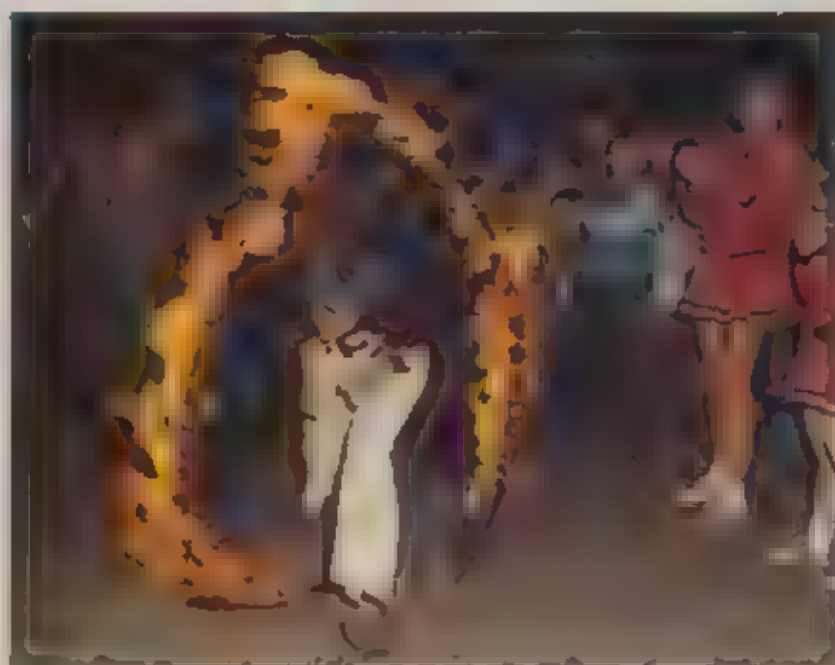

Hats, 50's, and Shades Spark Spirit Week; Senior Skit a Winner

The senior skit, written and directed by Judy Ellerbrock, was a show-stopper.

Junior Float Matches Temperature; Takes 1st

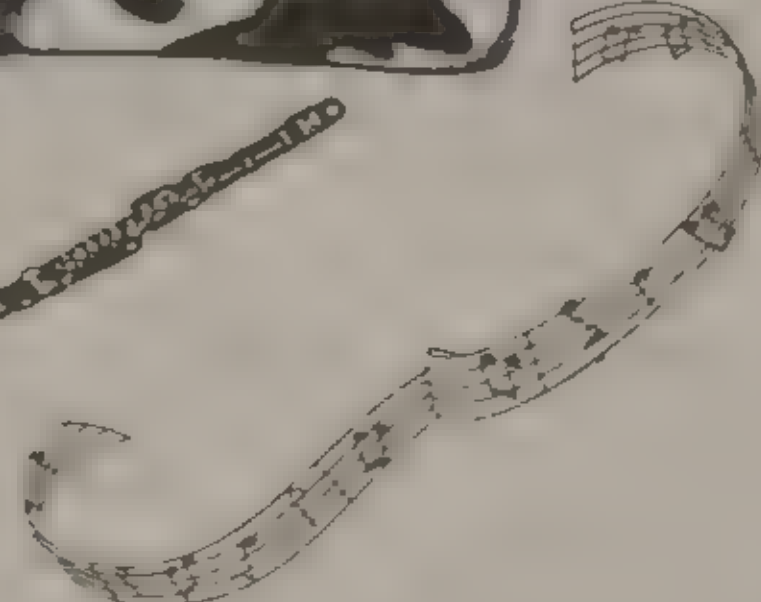

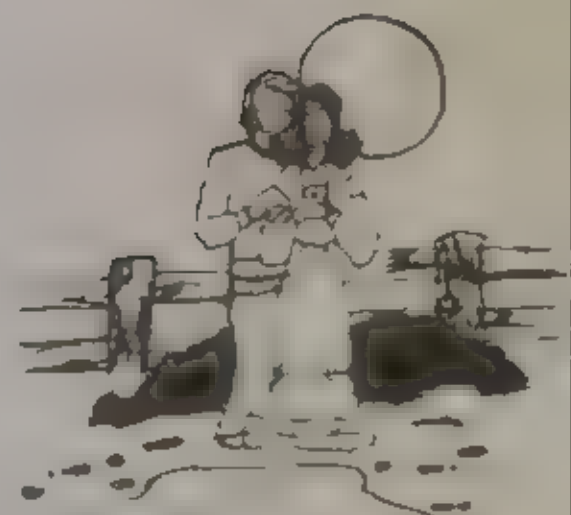

The weather forecast was "blustery", and blustery it was as the Homecoming Parade was faced with temperatures of 30° and brisk winds. The prize-winning float "Keep 'Em at Zero" summed up the afternoon.

Enthusiasm was not at zero, however, as the Blackhawks were the first team to score on a highly-rated Crestland team.

Basketball Blackhawks Battle Back

The 1980-81 boys basketball team can be classified as a hard-working, dedicated group of young men who never gave up. They made definite improvement from the previous year. Even though their 5-15 record was not the best in the state, it is indicative of the tough schedule they faced. There were many losses close enough to have gone either way.

The outlook should be even brighter for the Blackhawks next year. They lose four seniors, but the Blackhawks still have four starters returning for another season.

After a two year absence, the LVA Hawkettes returned to the state tournament; carrying a record of 25-1, a defensive average of 35.9, and ranked #2 in Class 2A. The only regular season loss was to Maple Valley during the absence of leading scorer Kim Schulte.

After capturing the Class 2A State Championship, the girls began play in the Tournament of Champions against a Norwalk team that became the state's overall champion. The Hawkettes battled back from a cold first quarter, but fell short by a score of 73-70. Only two teams in Iowa finish their season with a victory; and the Hawkettes were winners over Aplington to head home with a third place Consolation trophy too.

Speech Contestants Do Well

"Turn Everything Off" was the Choral Reading selection which received a 1 rating at large group speech contest February 7 in Sioux City. The selection was originally written by Allen Koessel, a 1971 LVA graduate. The reading, a satire on the people and objects of our society which produce noise pollution, was revised to fit the decade of the 80's.

Thespian Judy Ellerbrock (above, left) received a perfect 1 rating for her Literary Program entry at State Individual Speech Contest March 21. Judy has participated in 15 speech contest events. Named "Best Thespian" this year, Judy has accumulated a total of 104 points to earn a 4-star + honor bar Thespian ranking. Thespian Connie Mohr, (above, right) also received a 1 rating for her Literary Program entry at State Individual Speech Contest. Connie, a 3-star Thespian, has participated in speech contests for four years.

ENCOUNTER

Encounter--This is a very wonder.

Encounter is not by choice of place and people.

The world is not seen with eyes.

But destiny determines encounters which have important mission for us.

We can learn about each other by discussing with each other, sharing joys with each other, disappointing each other, loving each other, and hating . . .

But time and distance separate.

But we can meet again, some day, somewhere.

That time we'll talk of the past, the fulfillment, and the visions of tomorrow.

That time friends compliment each other in our heart. Seeing real friends in action is a beautiful vision, isn't it?

Looking, the mind of man is as limitless as the sky, are answers to human life, peace and happiness.

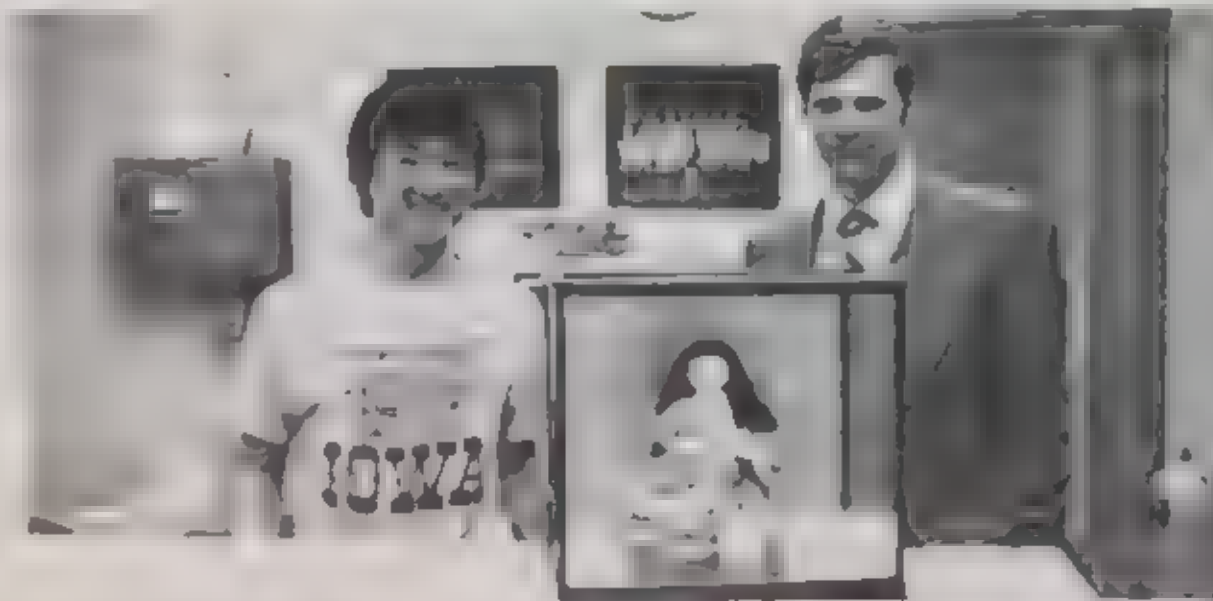

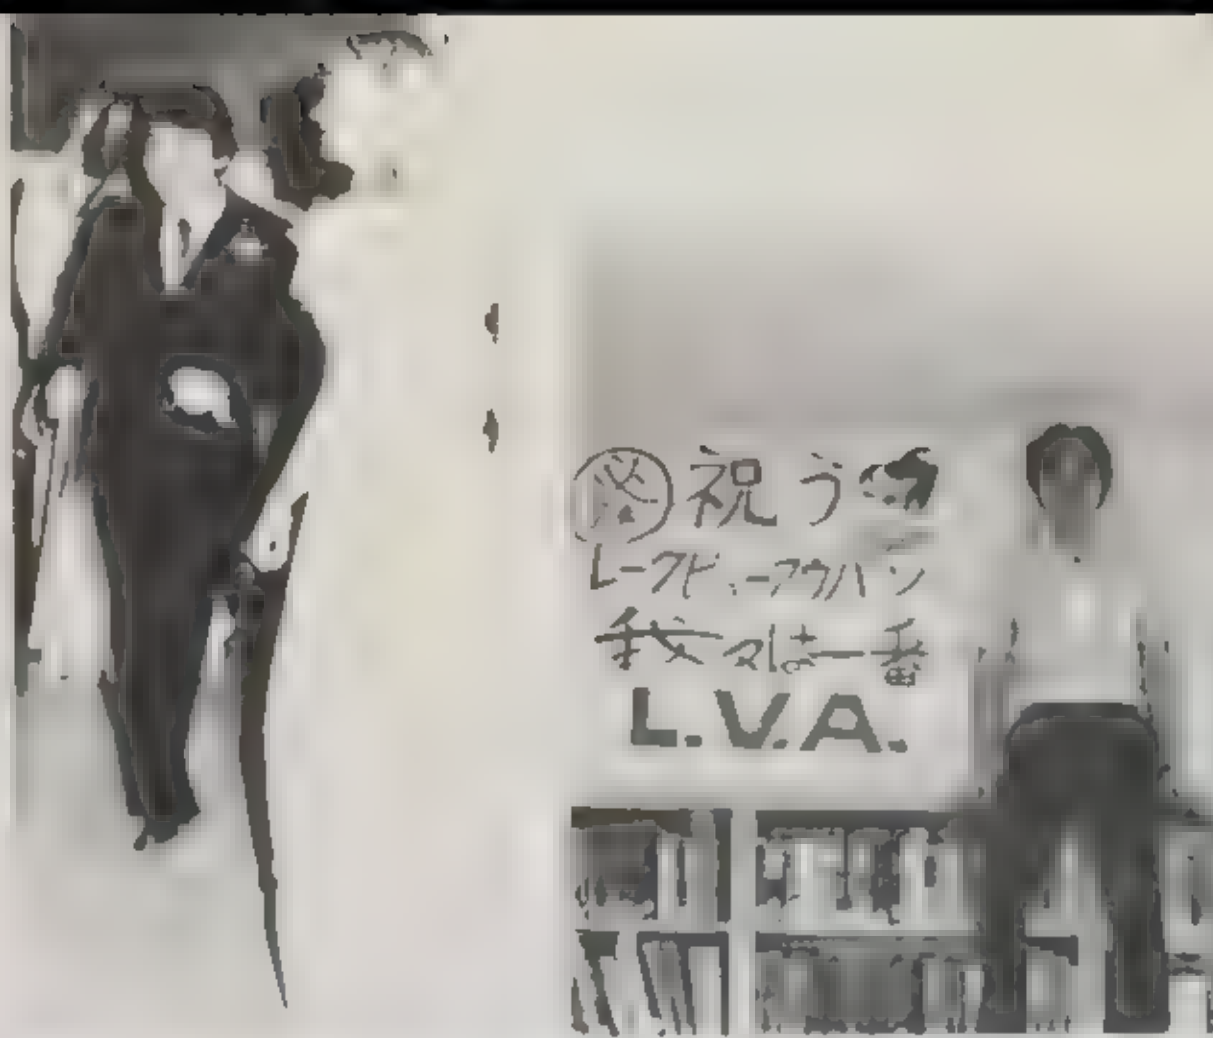

That life is simple and yet so grand.

That life is a teacher and we always learn, and life is the answer.

Though time may pass by in years, what is pure somehow remains.

See you again . . .

--Makoto Kawanaka

Makoto "Mike" Kawanaka came to LVA from Tokyo, Japan. A welcome addition to the senior class, Mike's American parents were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schroeder of Lake View.

AND PARTED AS ONE

Commencement for the Class of 1981 was held on Sunday, May 17 in the high school gymnasium. Mrs. Bruce Stevens provided the music for the processional as forty-three burgundy-gowned graduates entered to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance.

The program, written by Judy Ellerbrock consisted of a choral reading selection, several vocal presentations, and a woodwind quartet which accompanied a short reading.

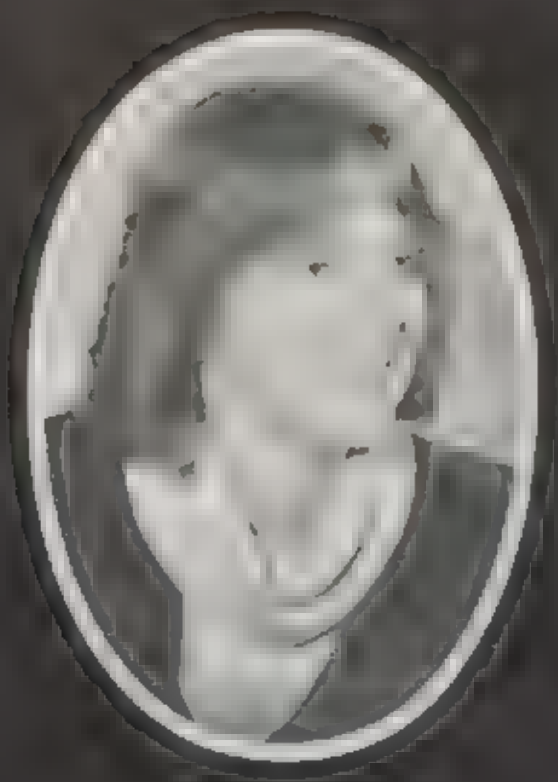

The day had finally arrived, and all too soon was over. A recessional entitled "We Part As One", written by Jeanne Wetzstein, filled the air as the graduates ended this chapter of their lives.

LV + A = LV A Elementary Students Are United

Changes made in the structure of the elementary school placed all 1st, 2nd, and 3rd graders in the Auburn Center; and all 4th, 5th, and 6th graders in Lake View. A section of kindergarten met at each center. This change has facilitated the grades being able to participate jointly in activities as well as giving them the opportunity to attend pep meetings and assembly programs as a group.

Curriculum Expanded Through Cooperative Program

A cooperative class-sharing program between Wall Lake and LVA has resulted in an expanded curriculum at a minimal cost. LVA students are enrolled in a variety of industrial arts classes at Wall Lake, and in turn Wall Lake students come to LVA for Spanish, chemistry, and vocational agriculture. Also new to the curriculum this year is a semester class in horticulture.

Tournament Time is Tremendous

During the winter months our attention turned to the prospect of a return trip to state for the girls basketball team. As the tournaments began, spirit and excitement grew with each game. We even discovered that riding a pep bus could be fun.

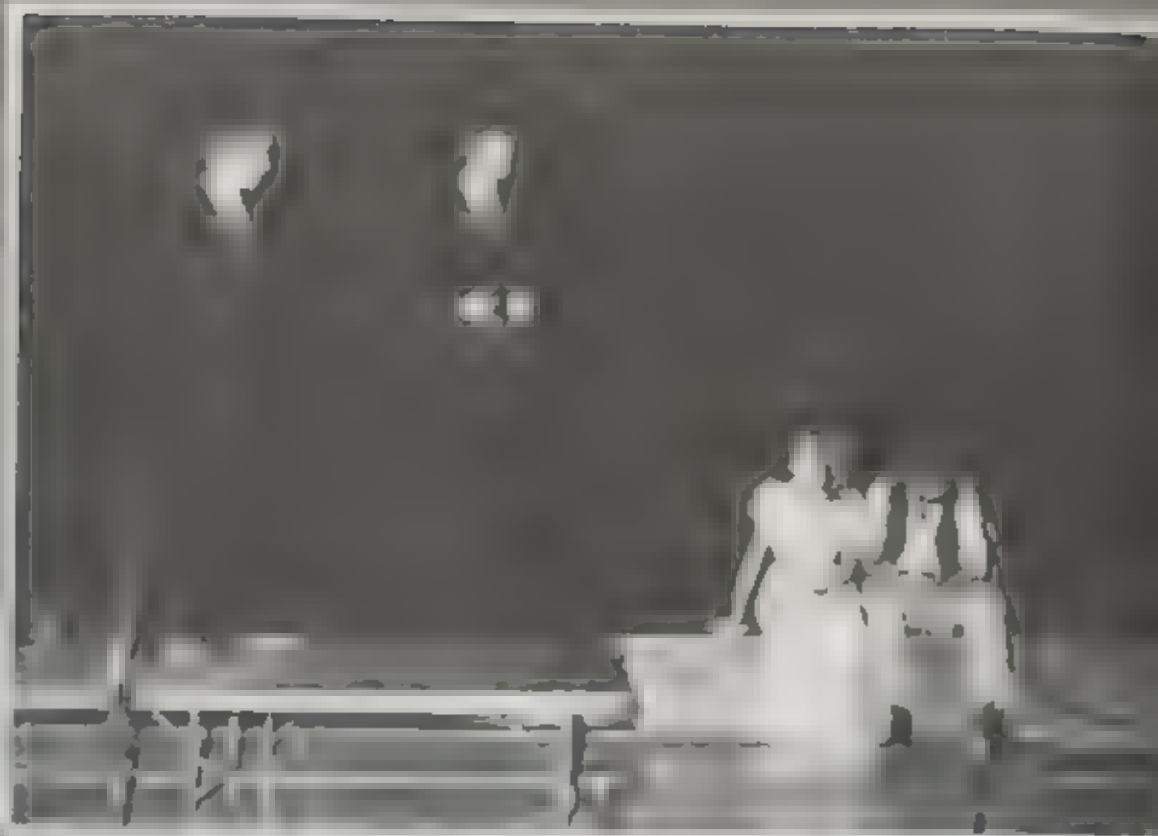

As the girls packed for their week's stay at Fort Des Moines, the answer came: as long as you can fit it. It governed the size of suitcases that could be packed. When not in action at Fort Des Moines, the girls were kept busy by attending a breakfast at Youkers, playing Uno with the security cop at the Hotel Fort Des Moines, and of course practice at North. A meal at Babe's pizza and countless goodies helped us maintain our diets.

The memorable week concluded with a welcome home celebration at the school Sunday afternoon.

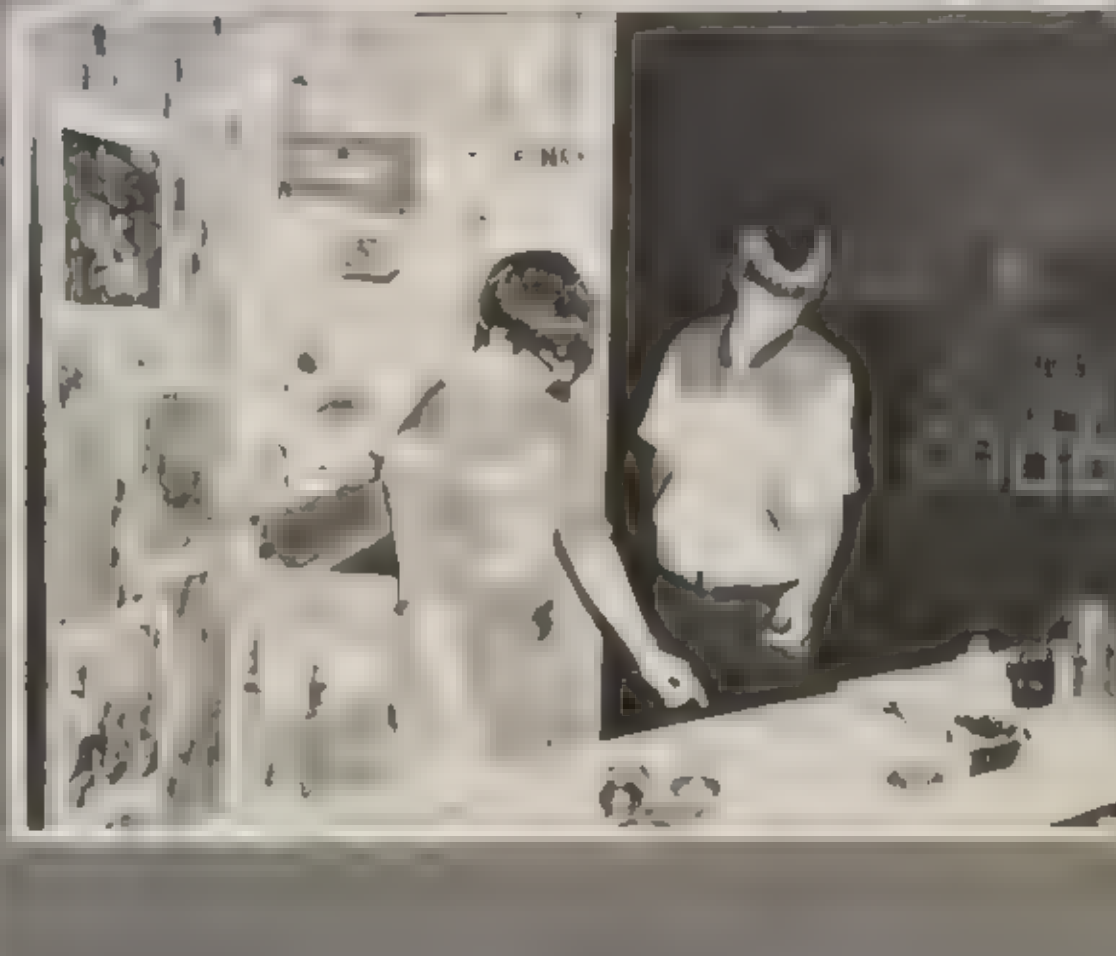

Our Schedules Are Flexible

Our schedules are flexible. We have a variety of schedules daily. CAROUSEL try-outs, rehearsals and the ultimate performance. We have a variety of activities and sports. We have a variety of challenges for our athletes. Faculty and volunteer help from the community worked together to host several events. The Art Show was held at the Country Club and we enjoyed being served by our sophomore. The students showed off their fine works during their Art Show at the Country Club.

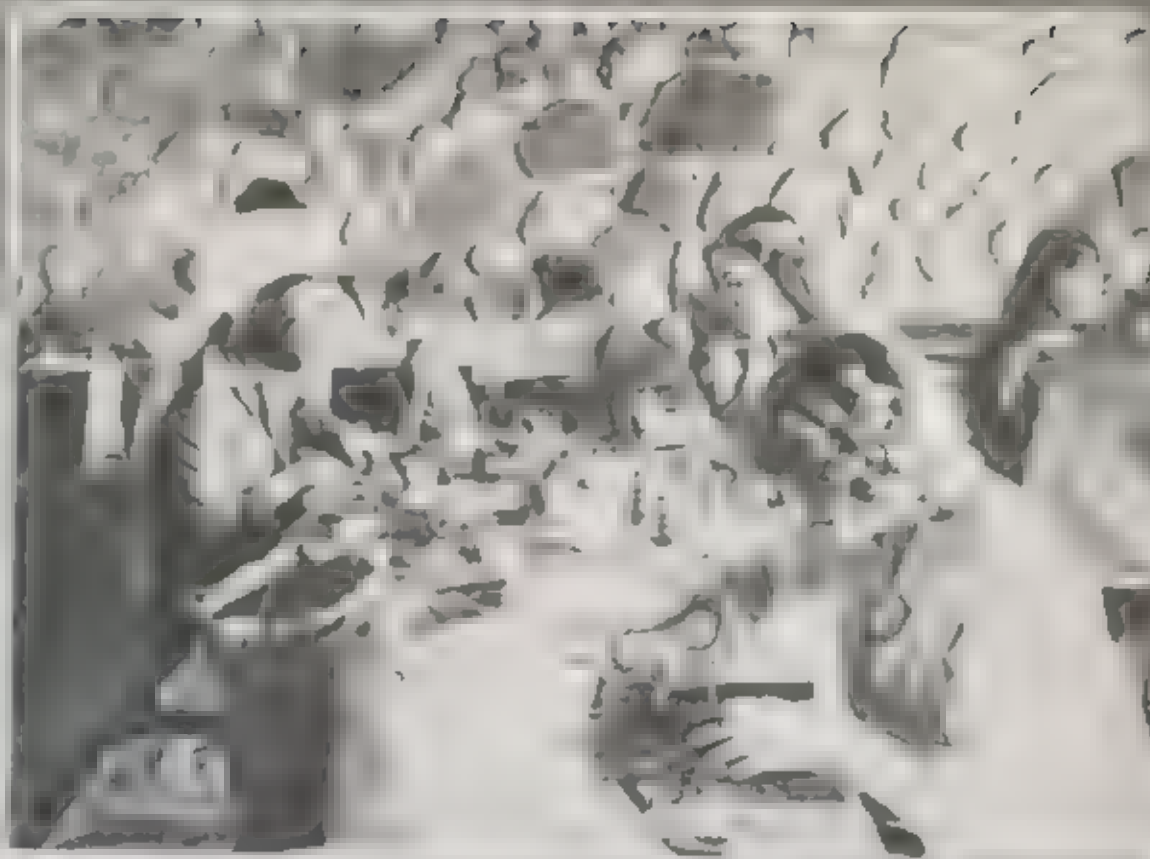

Nationally, our attention was turned to Washington D.C. where Ronald Reagan was sworn in as President. Simultaneously, our hostages were released. The Oakland A's were winning the Super Bowl.

OUR YEAR was a very good year. We have a lot of memories and it has been very successful. We will always remember our last year that we spent with our classmates; when everyone was together as one.

Even though it seems like the end we are really starting a new beginning. The future holds even better things than we have experienced in the past. Those past experiences will live with us forever in our memories.
